Dobrica Milovanovic: "Local self-government that attends to the needs of its citizens is our common goal"

[29/10/2009 11:00:00] "Local democracy agencies, Adriatic and Black Sea Euro-regions and multinational local networks such as the Network of Associations of Local Authorities of South-East Europe offer great opportunities for cooperation between national associations of local and regional authorities," stressed Dobrica Milovanovic (Serbia), Congress member and Vice-President of the Association of Local Democracy Agencies (ALDA), at the Conference on networking and cooperation between local authorities' associations of South Caucasus, in Kutaisi, Georgia, on 29 October. "The quickest way to an efficient local self-government that attends to the needs of its citizens is through pooling our knowledge, experiences and resources," he said.
