To whom it may concern

Dear Madams and Sirs,

Prof. Dr. Ivan Cukalovic, University of Kragujevac, and GIZ (here especially the "Legal and Administrative Reform Project") share a long and very fruitful professional history together.

Some of our projects which could be realized successfully thanks to the valuable contribution of Prof. Cukalovic are as follows:

- Lecturing:

Prof. Cukalovic taught a course on "Relationship between Serbs and Albanians in Kosovo" at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin ("Alexander-von -Humboldt- University Berlin) in cooperation with Prof. Dr. Tomuschat (November 2013)

- Study Visits:

He participated in study visits to Paris/France, Rome/Italy, Tallinn/Estonia and Karlsruhe/Germany and enriched these substantially (2010 – 2015)

- Seminars:

Prof. Cukalovic played a leading role in two seminars:

- a) Sandanski/Bulgaria: "Incidental Control"; in cooperation with Prof. Lothar Michael, University of Düsseldorf (2012)
- b) Thessaloniki/Greece: "The relationship between the Supreme and the Constitutional Court in Kosovo" (2014)

Furthermore, Prof. Cukalovic had the lead in two projects, which were realized under his guidance:

- Correction of the Serbian version of the Constitution of Kosovo
- Compilation of a Commentary of the Constitution of Kosovo.

This list reflects only a small part of our mutual work and depicts only some of the highlights.

We strongly hope to continue that valuable cooperation in the future.
