Subject: eD2009 Conference Rotterdam and study tour

Amsterdam, 14 September 2009

To whom it may concern,

On the 29th and 30th of October Spark, in corporation with Triodos Facet and INHolland University of Applied Science, organises the Entrepreneurship Development Conference 2009 in Rotterdam. The conference will entail discussions, workshops and speeches about entrepreneurship education and business creation programmes in both developed and developing countries. The aim of this conference is to enhance the international interaction between practitioners, policy makers, entrepreneurs and researchers so to better understand our sector, share knowledge experience and to learn about new opportunities and possible solutions. Supporting the conference within the framework of development of curriculum in entrepreneurship the study tour is organized in the period 25th – 29th October.

Mrs. Verica Babic is representing University of Kragujevac – Faculty of Economics and has therefore been selected to participate in the study tour and conference. We kindly request a Schengen visa for Mrs. Babic for the period of her visit (25/10/09 to 31/10/09) to the Netherlands.

SPARK will cover the costs of Mrs. Babic including accommodation during his stay in the Netherlands and costs for travelling.
